Oliver M. Tullis (1823-1908) was a photographer in Troy, Miami Co, Ohio, who took this self portrait. He created an album of photos of his extended family, including all of his siblings. The album is currently in the collection of Dr. Stephen Altic. The photos were probably taken in the late 1860's to 1870's. The album contains 40 images, more of which are reproduced inside.

   An introduction to this issue of Tullis Trees.

3  Tullis Surname DNA Project
   by Thomas S. Tullis
   An introduction to a genetic genealogy study being started to determine if various Tullis males share a common paternal ancestor. For example, if we can determine that a descendant of Moses Tullis (of New Jersey) shares a paternal ancestor with a descendant of Claudius Tullos (of Virginia), that will establish a connection between the two lines.

4  A Tullis Photo Album
   Photos supplied by Stephen Altic; text and research by Thomas S. Tullis Presents 30 photos from an old Tullis photo album. The album is believed to have belonged to the family of Oliver M. Tullis of Troy, Ohio, and all the photos appear to be from the 1860’s or 1870’s. Oliver was a photographer in the Troy area and he took many of these photos, which include his own family, all of his siblings, and many members of their families. Also includes a report of the known descendants of Oliver and his siblings.

22 The Richard Tullis Family of Columbiana County, Ohio Part 3: David Barrett Tullis & Family
   by Carolyn Miller and Patricia Tullys
   This is the third installment of extracts from the book, The Richard Tullis Family of Columbiana County, Ohio by Carolyn Miller and Patricia Tullys (1989). In this installment, we begin to focus on the children of Richard Tullis (1794-1856) and Rachel Barrett (1800-1856), starting with the oldest, David Barrett Tullis (1818-1876) and his family. Includes a listing of the known descendants of David and his wife Mary Lucinda Miller.

30 Old Tullis Photos
   Photos provided by Sharon Bryant and Debra McCarthy
   Presents two old photos that include Tullises. First is a photo of Thomas Jefferson Tullis (1850-1928) and his wife Sarah Maria Metzinger (1848-1905). Next is a photo of Oliver Eldervirt (“Bert”) Tullis (1864-1943), his wife Mary Parsons (1862-1936), and their extended family standing in front of the second-hand store that Bert owned in Decatur Co, Iowa.

   Presents a photo from about 1950 including four generations of Tullises, starting with Harry Tullis (1868-1953).

From the Editor

This issue is getting very full, so I’m going to keep this column short. (This is always the last part of each issue that I write.) The most exciting thing in this issue, to me, is the article on “A Tullis Photo Album” that starts on the next page. I was contacted by Dr. Stephen Altic about a photo album from the 1860’s or ’70’s he had acquired which contains numerous photos of Tullises and their relatives. After some research, I was able to determine that the album probably originally belonged to the Oliver M. Tullis family of Troy, Ohio. Oliver was a photographer in that area. Dr. Altic was kind enough to share copies of the photos for this issue. Next is the third installment from the book The Richard Tullis Family of Columbiana, Ohio by Carolyn Miller and Patricia Tullys. In this installment we begin looking at each of the children of Richard Tullis and Rachel Barrett, starting with their oldest, David Barrett Tullis (1818-1876). Next we have two old Tullis photos. The first is a photo of Thomas Jefferson Tullis (1850-1928) and his wife Sarah Maria Metzinger (1848-1905) that was provided by Sharon Bryant. The second is a photo of Oliver Elderville “Bert” Tullis (1864-1943), his wife Mary A. Parsons (1862-1936), and their extended family standing in front of the second-hand store in Decatur Co, Iowa, which the couple ran. The photo was provided by Debra McCarthy. Finally, we finish this issue with a multi-generation photo from 1950 provided by William M. Tullis that includes four generations of Tullises, starting with his great-grandfather, Harry Tullis (1868-1953).

Tullis Surname DNA Project

by Thomas S. Tullis

As some of you may know, recent advances in “genetic genealogy” have made possible some new ways of studying our family history. One important advance is the Y-DNA test, which can determine if two males share a common male ancestor, even many generations back. To learn more about our Tullis lines and how they inter-connect, I am starting a Tullis Surname DNA Project. (See http://www.familytreeDNA.com for more information about the company that provides the analyses.) I have agreed to be the coordinator for the project. Since this analysis is done via the Y-chromosome, which only males inherit, participation is limited to males with the Tullis (or similar) surname. If we can get relatively broad participation by Tullis males, I hope we will be able to determine if male descendants of various Tullis lines, such as the following, share a common male ancestor: (1) The “Southern U.S.” Tullises and the “Midwestern U.S.” Tullises; (2) The “Gwinnett Co, GA” Tullises and the other “Southern” Tullises; (3) The descendants of Claudius/Cloud Tullos of Virginia and the descendants of Moses Tullis of New Jersey; (4) The descendants of Moses Tullis and those of his (presumed) brother, William Tullis; (5) The descendants of any of the U.S. Tullis lines and the descendants of any Tullis lines that trace to Scotland. This analysis could answer some very basic questions that Tullis researchers have never been able to answer before, such as whether the earliest Tullises in the U.S. came from Scotland, and whether the two major Tullis/Tullos lines in the U.S. (the NJ and VA migrations) are connected.

Participation in the project is very simple. The test kit, which costs about $100, involves a mouth swab that is then sent in for analysis. Participants will get access to the results online to see who else they share paternal ancestors with. If you are interested in participating, or have any questions, please contact me (TomTullis@aol.com).

Editor’s Note: Several months ago I was contacted by Dr. Stephen Altic who had purchased an old photographic album from the Troy, Ohio, area. Dr. Altic collects photos of Civil War soldiers, at least three of whom are included in the album. But he contacted me because many of the individuals pictured were named “Tullis”. Thankfully, almost all of the individuals pictured were identified, although often just by first initials and last name. After a little research, I was able to determine that this album probably belonged to Oliver M. Tullis, who was a photographer in Troy and took many of the pictures himself. The photos include him and his wife, their children, all of Oliver’s siblings who lived to adulthood along with their spouses, and many of Oliver’s nieces and nephews. On the following pages the photos are reproduced by family group. I’m very grateful to Dr. Altic for sharing these with us.
This is the index included at the front of the album. These numbers are given for all of the subsequent photos in this article. (Note that the numbers for the left-hand column have been added because the original numbers were too close to the binding to be seen.)
William Tullis and Sarah Barbee

Photo #11, “Willie Tullis”, believed to be William Tullis (1787-1868), son of Aaron Tullis and Jean. Photo #10, “Charlie Tullis”, believed to be William’s wife, Sarah Barbee (1793-1857).

These two pictures would have been quite a mystery if the exact same photos had not been included in Zola Hardy’s book, Tullis and Allied Families, identified as William Tullis and his wife Sarah Barbee. (They were also reproduced in Tullis Trees, Vol. 1, No. 4, in much lower quality than shown here, along with photocopies of their Family Bible.) William and Sarah were the parents of Sarah S. Tullis, wife of Oliver M. Tullis. (Oliver and Sarah were also cousins.) So it makes sense that they might be included in this album. One mystery is that none of the other records we have seen give any indication that she went by any name other than Sarah. And Charlie seems like a bit of an odd nickname for a woman, especially back then. Another mystery is that Sarah died in 1857, as indicated by her gravestone in Rose Hill Cemetery in Troy, OH. That is before this type of photograph (Carte-de-Visite or CDV) was available in the U.S. It is possible that this was a copy of an earlier Daguerreotype.

1850 census record (Monroe Twp, Miami Co, Ohio, p. 117)
James and Malissa were married on Nov. 18, 1841, in Troy, Miami Co, OH. They had two children that we know of: Olivia A. (b. abt. 1843) and Cyrus William (b. abt. 1854).

1860 census, Troy, Miami Co, OH, p. 18

1870 census, Troy, Miami Co, OH, p. 106
Olivia A. LeFevre and Philemon Dickinson married in 1862 in Miami Co, OH (license #09054). They had two children: Henry Clarence (b. abt. 1865) and Laura/Lutie (b. abt. 1867). It appears likely that Olivia died before 1880, as Philemon is found in the 1880 census in Indianapolis, IN, with a younger wife Emma, as well as Clarence and Laura, and a new daughter, Mary (age 3). It appears that Henry Clarence married a Cora B. and had children Louisa E. (b. abt. 1892) and Mary B. (b. abt. 1896). Like his father, Henry Clarence Dickinson was in the music business, serving as Manager and Vice President of a piano manufacturer in Chicago (possibly the Gulbransen-Dickinson Company). (Note that photos of an older “Mr. Dickinson” (#18) and “Mrs. Dickinson” (#19) are included in the album right before Philemon’s photo. It is possible they are his parents.)

1870 census, Troy, Miami Co, OH, p. 300
Susan/Susannah S. Tullis and Joseph Warner

Photo #5, “S. S. Warner”, believed to be Susan/Susannah S. Tullis (b. 1822), the second child of Joel Tullis and Mary Ann Thomas.

Photo #4, “J. Warner”, believed to be Joseph Warner (b. abt. 1815).

Susannah Tullis and Joseph Warner were married on August 12, 1845, in Miami Co, OH. They had four children: Edgar T. (b. 1845), Charles F. (b. 1851), Mary E. (b. abt. 1855), and Luella/Ella (b. abt. 1865).

1870 census, Troy, Miami Co, OH, p. 278

Tullis Trees, Volume 3, Number 1 (1st Quarter 2004)
It is believed that Edgar T. Warner served for the Union Army during the Civil War in Co. F. of the 147th Ohio Infantry. Records indicate that an “E. F. Warner” enlisted on 5/2/1864 as a Private in the 147th and mustered out on 8/30/1864. (Note that Oliver M. Tullis also served in the 147th Ohio Infantry, and the photo of Edgar Warner is inscribed on the back “Presented O.M.T.”, indicating that Oliver took the photo and gave it to him.) Edgar married a Louisa M. and had children Horace (b. 1872), Clarence (b. 1874), and Willie (b. abt. 1874).

Charles F. Warner married a Sarah Katherine and had children Belle S. (b. 1878) and Pansy E. (b. 1885).

Nothing more is known about Mary E. Warner or Luella/Ella Warner.
Oliver M. Tullis and Sarah S. Tullis

Photo #14, “O. M. Tullis”, believed to be Oliver M. Tullis (1823-1908), third child of Joel Tullis and Mary Ann Thomas.

Photo #15, “Callie Tullis”, believed to be Sarah S. Tullis (1830-1910), daughter of William Tullis and Sarah Barbee, and wife of Oliver Tullis.

Oliver M. Tullis and his cousin, Sarah S. Tullis, were married on October 24, 1850, in Miami Co, OH. Oliver served for the Union Army during the Civil War, enlisting as a Sergeant on May 2, 1864, at the age of 40, in Company H of the 147th Ohio Infantry Regiment. He mustered out on August 30, 1864. Oliver became a photographer, taking many of the photos in this album. (Oddly, the census records all list him as a “plasterer” though.) Oliver and Sarah had four daughters: Emma (b. abt. 1852), Mary A. (b. 1856), Callie May (b. 1861), and Maggie (b. 1864). Both Oliver and Sarah are buried in Riverside Cemetery, Troy, Miami Co, OH.

1860 census, Troy, Miami Co, OH, p. 36

Emma Tullis appears with the family in the 1860 census but not again. She may have married, moved away, or died before the 1870 census.

Mary A. Tullis apparently never married. She is buried in Riverside Cemetery, Troy, Miami Co, OH.

Callie May Tullis married Frank Walter Tenney (b. 1860) on Oct. 26, 1882. They had three children: Roy Tullis Tenney (b. 1884), Leila E. Tenney (b. 1886), and Arthur Francis Tenney (b. 1906). Callie and Frank are buried in Riverside Cemetery, Troy, Miami Co, OH.

No further information can be found for the youngest daughter, Maggie Tullis.

Photo #35, “C. and M. Tullis”, believed to be Callie May Tullis (1861-1937).

Photo #35, “C. and M. Tullis”, believed to be

Photo #35, “C. and M. Tullis”, believed to be Mary A. Tullis (1856-1923).
Andrew T. Tullis and Matilda Bush

Photo #36, not included in the index, but believed to be Andrew T. Tullis (b. 1827), fourth child of Joel Tullis and Mary Ann Thomas.

Photo #31, “M. Tullis”, believed to be Matilda Bush (b. abt. 1830 in Pennsylvania), wife of Andrew Tullis.

Andrew Tullis and Matilda Bush were married on November 2, 1848. They had eight children: Woodford B. (b. abt. 1849), Mary (b. abt. 1852), Clara (b. abt. 1855), Charles A. (b. abt. 1858), William Lincoln (b. 1860), Oliver Grant (b. 1864), Ada M. (b. abt. 1868), and Ruby (b. abt. 1873). Like his older brother, Oliver, Andrew was a photographer, and at least one of the photos in this album was taken by him. Also note the very strong resemblance between the two brothers. Matilda and three of their children appear in the 1880 census without Andrew, and Matilda is listed as a widow, indicating that Andrew died before 1880. Matilda appears in the 1910 and 1920 censuses in Los Angeles, CA, with her son William.

1870 census, Bloomington, McLean Co, IL, page 115

Many of the children of Andrew and Matilda moved to Los Angeles, CA, by about 1880. Interestingly, several of them worked as jewelers or watch-makers (following in the footsteps of Matilda’s father who was also a jeweler). Woodford B. Tullis (left) married Mary N. Behn and had two children: Laura and Roy Wilfred. Charles A. Tullis married Lucinda Franklin and had four children: Ione G., Wesley Oliver, Roland Lester, and Winifred. William Lincoln Tullis married an Elizabeth K. later in life and did not have children. Oliver Grant Tullis married Catherine "Cassie" Anna Isenhart and had a daughter Olive Catherine.

Photo #39a, not listed in the index, but identified on the back as “Wood B. Tullis”. Believed to be Woodford B. Tullis (1849-1890/1900), oldest child of Andrew Tullis and Matilda Bush.

Sylvester S. Tullis and Elizabeth R. Campbell

Sylvester S. Tullis (b. 1832), sixth child of Joel Tullis and Mary Ann Thomas.

Sylvester Tullis and Elizabeth Campbell were married on March 10, 1851, in Miami Co, OH. They had two children that we know of: Mary Malissa (b. abt. 1858/59) and James William (b. 1863). By 1870, the family had moved to Jefferson Co, Kansas. James William married a Delia H. and had three children: Bessie (b. abt. 1892), Frank M. (b. abt. 1893), and Edgar H. (b. abt. 1895). James died in Portland, Oregon, on February 21, 1934.

Catherine Elizabeth Tullis and Joseph Wright were married on October 25, 1855, in Miami Co, OH. They had three children that we know of: Clara B. (b. abt. 1857), Charles F. (b. abt. 1859), and Mary L. (b. abt 1866). Joseph was a shoemaker. Catherine is listed as a widow in the 1880 census, with only her daughter Mary living with her, indicating that Joseph had probably died before 1880.

Mystery Photos

Photo #12, “Woodford Tullis”. The only Woodford Tullis we know was the SON of Andrew Tullis and Matilda Bush. Since this is obviously a woman, it seems possible that this photo may have been displaced from its proper location in the album.

Photo #39, not identified in the album. However, the label on the back indicates the photo was taken by “A. Tullis, Bloomington, Ill.”, which was Andrew T. Tullis. It is possible this could be one of his daughters (e.g., Mary, b. 1852, or Clara, b. 1855).

The report has been limited to four generations to protect the privacy of descendants who may be living. Contact me directly for details (TomTullis@aol.com). As new information becomes available, I will be posting updates to the Rootsweb Worldconnect Project (http://worldconnect.rootsweb.com/).

David Barrett Tullis (1818-1876) was the oldest child of Richard Tullis (1794-1856) and Rachel Barrett (1800-1856). In 1843 he married Lucinda Miller with whom he had three children: Wilberforce (1849-1910), Osborne (1851-1915), and Irene (1853-1919).

DAVID BARRETT TULLIS

David Barrett Tullis  b. May 29, 1818   d. May 28, 1876 in Leetonia marr. Mar.12, 1843
Lucinda Miller  b. about 1825  d. 1853-56
Three children: Wilberforce, Osborne, Irene.
marr.2 Nov.22, 1856
Rebecca Brown  b. Sept.26, 1833  d. Dec.6, 1900

The first child of Richard and Rachel Tullis was born May 29, 1818 and named David Barrett Tullis for Rachel's father, David Barrett. David did not leave many records to tell us about his life.

In 1843 he married Lucinda Miller who was born about 1825 in Pennsylvania.
Her parents were probably George and Mary Miller. On the census in 1850 he is listed as a laborer living in Unity Township. In 1860 he was a salesman living in Leetonia in Perry Township. By 1870 he was working as a carpenter still in Perry Township. He apparently rented his home because we found no record of a deed or a mortgage.

David and Lucinda had three children: Wilberforce, Osborne and Irene.
Lucinda died sometime after Irene was born in 1853 and before November 1856 when David married Rebecca Brown. Rebecca Brown was born in Virginia and probably the daughter of James Brown. When Rebecca married David, she was 23 and he was 36. Wilberforce was nine, Osborne was six and Irene was four. She had no children of her own but probably had her hands full as stepmother to the three children.

The only other record of David is that he was executor of his father's estate in 1856. There was little to divide among 12 children so he did not inherit enough assets to divide among his own children. David died in 1876 at his home in Leetonia and is buried in the cemetery at Columbiana. There was no death record and no probate record for him. His three children were all married by the time he died.

Eighteen years after David died, Rebecca married John Cole in 1884 and died at her home in Washingtonville in 1900. She is buried with John Cole in the cemetery on the north edge of Washingtonville. We have not found a tombstone for David's first wife Lucinda and death records were not kept that early. Stones from the 1850s are often too worn to read. David's stone is next to his parents in the East Fairfield Cemetery.

Many thanks to Debra McCarthy for sharing this photo taken about 1910 in front of a second-hand store in Chariton or Leon, Decatur Co, Iowa. The individuals pictured are as follows: Back row left to right: Murriel Atta Shorts, Jennie Parsons Atta, Molly Parsons Tullis, Oliver Eldervirt “Bert” Tullis (the owner of the store); Middle row left to right: Bertie B. Tullis, Frank Atta; Front row left to right: Margaret Sage, Atta Sage, Frederick D. Tullis. Debra also provided a chart from an old album (below) showing how these people were related.

Editor’s Notes: Oliver E. “Bert” Tullis (1864-1943) was a son of John Summerset Tullis (1832-1911) and Elizabeth A. Walker (1837-1884). He married Mary A. Parsons (1862-1936) about March 1889. Their son Bertie B. was born Aug. 1, 1898; he died at the age of 17 on March 1, 1916. Frederick D. Tullis was born on March 31, 1905, and died Oct. 5, 1975 (in Martin Co, MN). He married Augusta E. Ward (1904-1974) on Nov. 1, 1923. They had children Clara Adeline (1924-1925) and Frederick.
